FIRST FRENCH BATTLE.

ALSACE INVADED.

GERMANS ROUTED WITH THE BAYONET.

LIEGE HOLDING OUT.

INVESTMENT OF THE CITY.

GERMAN SUBMARINE charge carried the German trenches after a brisk fight in the front lines. SUNK.

The first battle between French and German evacuated the town. troops has been fought in Alsace and won by France.

defending German force before them with to escape. the bayonet. On Saturday they advanced The French afterwards entered Altkirch. The pursuit of the German rearguard, which is burning the villages as it retreats.

advance guard of the French and German had been abandoned. armies. The forces engaged consisted each of one division.

Mülhausen, an unfortified town of 95,000 and welcomed the French flag with immense inhabitants, is 12 miles over the German enthusiasm. frontier and 20 miles from Belfort, the southernmost of the French frontier forts.

French troops with fervent expressions of north of Mülhausen. welcome. The French Commander-in-Chief The French losses were not excessive. The marines, U.15, was sunk.

appears to have been able to make but numbers when the town became German. little impression upon them. Verviers, on Altkirch lies midway between Basel and no instructions. in the hands of the Germans.

We are able to publish the first detailed account walls erected in the 14th century. which has appeared in this country of the fighting round Liége. This account is from the pen of a Special Correspondent in BATTLE OF ADVANCE GUARDS. Belgium.

The long resistance of Liége seems to show that the German advance into Belgium! tion. A similar impression is created by the report that German patrols in Belgium are starving for lack of supplies and have surrendered in order to obtain food.

Various indications suggest that, although details of the movements of the French the importance of the engagement at Mülhausen Army are necessarily being concealed, the should not be exaggerated. It is pointed out Germany will not violate her neutrality, as heve been a revolution.

first and second squadrons of the

The British forces in the Gold Coast Colony, | 1' acting in conjunction with French forces that the Dominions and the Colonies are of it. One newspaper, commenting upon this 33rd Regiment, The Germans left 100 killed rallying with magnificent spirit to the reticence, says that the Japanese have taught and a machine gun. Yesterday a German defence of the Crown. Offers amounting to mously. This is in contradistinction with the On the Austrian front, the enemy, advancing 48,000 troops, to be sent to this country, have methods of the former Franco-German War, from Cracow towards Kielce, traversed 30 miles.

over £400,000. Saturday's subscriptions include £25,000 from the Imperial Tobacco the Admiralty. The Bank rate was reduced to 5 per cent. thusiasm of the population of Alsace increases on Saturday, and a more confident feeling each hour. prevailed in the City.

which has been enhanced by the recently- into Alsace evoked this morning pæans of joy Empire and this country. ordered mobilization, is reported to have from the French Press, which are only the echo taken the form of an occupation of Bul- of the wave of pride and delight which ran from Berlin, whether sent direct or disseminated garian territory on the Maritza frontier. of the afternoon papers were shouted down the This move may have some connexion with boulevards. the reported arrival of the Goeben in the M. Alfred Capus in the Figaro writes:-

to England, describes the scenes in Berlin forget on learning the news. For 40 years our whole on the outbreak of war and the steps taken times we have thought it too near, sometimes imto conceal the truth from the public.

THE TRICOLOUR ALSACE.

TOWNS SEIZED.

ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME.

GENERAL JOFFRE AND THE LOST PROVINCES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

PARIS, Aug. 8.

The French are once more in Alsace and have occupied Altkirch and Mülhausen.

The entry of the French Army into Alsace them there so picturesque. One laughs, one admires is a historic event. It was on Friday at night. them, and one loves them. fall that the French advanced guard, consisting of a brigade, arrived before Altkirch. The town was defended by strong field works and was occupied by a German brigade.

The French troops attacked with magnificent ardour and an infantry regiment in a furious

Once again French bayonet charges put the Germans to flight and they retired in great disorder. Though their second line could still have been defended they abandoned it and also

A regiment of dragoons pursued the Germans in the direction of Wallheim and Tagolsheim. Serious losses were inflicted. The colonel The French occupied Altkirch on Friday night and seven officers of the pursuing force were after a sharp action in which they drove the wounded. The night enabled the Germans statement expressing its desire that the continued the march. The cavalry found no Belfort. The march of the French troops, it importance of this engagement should not outposts before Mülhausen, but in the after- is declared, was stopped near Altkirch and be exaggerated. It was a fight between the noon scouts encountered field works, with the enemy returned in the direction of Belfort. which the Germans protected the town. These -Reuter.

10 miles to Mülhausen, meeting with no old Alsatian city gave them an enthusiastic resistance on the way. Their cavalry is in welcome. All the windows were opened. Old men who had seen the other war embraced the French soldiers, and immense cries of delight were heard.

At 5 o'clock the columns debouched before Mülhausen. The Alsatians ran out of the town

In less than an hour Mülhausen was occupied. At the same time the cavalry, crossing the town at a gallop, pursued the German rearguard. The inhabitants of Alsace are receiving the French outposts have established themselves has issued a proclamation in which he Germans retired in the direction of Neu Breisach. declares that after 44 years the day of The invasion of Alsace was announced in the Tyrolese troops have arrived at Leopoldshöhe town of 95,000 inhabitants in the south of Alsace. Government. Though it seems certain that Liége is now completely invested, the splendid resistance completely invested, the splendid resistance been fought, Altkirch being 12 miles due east reply from the Austro-Hungarian Government of troops into all intact, and so far the German artillery inhabitants of Mülhausen showed their French sympathies in 1871 by emigrating in large the other hand, is now said to be-completely Belfort, about a dozen miles from the frontier, was undertaken without sufficient prepara. A DIVISION ONLY ENGAGED ON EITHER

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

French have now been able to push their that it is a fight between the advance guards of strategically this would not suit Germany. the French and German armies, consisting each Nevertheless the frontiers are strongly guarded. i one division. It is, however, significant that each contingent had about the same effec-Japanese Fleet have put to sea under the tive, and that the German forces showed par- RUSSIAN TROOPS IN GERMANY AND AUSTRIA. ticular fear of the white arm as in the revolutionary wars. History was repeating itself.

Satisfaction is expressed in Paris not merely from Dahomey, have seized the port of but at the discretion shown by the War Office Stalluponen, 80 miles west of Eydtkuhnen, Government of Montenegro has informed the in not divulging either the name of the general drawing the fire of the German artillery. The or giving other particulars leading to the fighting near Eydtkuhnen on Thursday resulted they consider themselves in a state of war Messages from all parts of the Empire record identification of the division or of any regiment in the complete rout of the second battalian with Austria. the French to make war silently and anony- aeroplane flew over kalvari, near Suwalki. been accepted from Canada, Australia, and when the names of generals were on every lip, the other hand, the Russians, advancing from and each act was discussed in drawing-rooms Rovno, penetrated Austrian territory about a The Prince of Wales's Fund now amounts to as contributing to the glory of certain names. It is officially confirmed that, after having Neu-Breissch, 12 miles in the rear. In retreat. according to programme. Company and £15,000 from the Duke of ing the Germans set on fire numerous buildings, Westminster.

Inotably food and fedder steres. A forest near GERMAN NEWS IN WAR TIME. of Connaught, have offered a hospital ship to in order to terrorize the Alsatians announce that all suspected persons will be pitilessly shot. Netwithstanding these threats the en-

THE NEWS IN PARIS.

Our Berlin Correspondent, who has returned ing line felt a thrill to the heart which they will never to Germany. possible. But always through all the trouble of the service at home or abroad.

history of our times the reoccupation of Alsace and Lorraine has remained the ideal of France, and no Frenchman in the depths of his heart has ever given up the lost provinces: It is this hope of making our country whole again which has sustained us and upheld our strength and dignity in spite of our divisions. It is this hope, too, which, accumulated in our hearts, has produced the burning explosion of patriotism, before which the barbarians have re-

No news has yet been received from the front apart from the official communiqués, but the newspapers publish letters from members of their staffs who have been mobilized which give an excellent impression of the spirit prevailing among the French troops. Letters describe the mobilization and the movements of forces as being carried out in good order. The men are gay and cheerful and look forward to meeting the enemy. They treat unexpected difficulties and hardships with good humour. line while troop trains filled with younger men are moved up to the front. It says:like, with bits of uniform and the rest civil dress, képis on their heads, red trousers, and the long blue marines. None of H.M. ships was damaged. Mary paid a visit to York House. peasants' blouses girt with a belt, coats and capes of and one of the enemy's submarines, U.15, was sheep or goat skin, hats and caps of felt, a wonderful lot of fellows who know how to do their duty. Before sunk. the fields where they used to work, before their own which has risen to defend itself to protect the soil.

THE PIONEERS OF REVENGE. (FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

They are a great sight. It makes one laugh to see

BRUSSELS, Aug. 9.

General Joffre, Commander-in-Chief of the French Army, has issued the following proclamation:

Children of Alsace:-

After 44 years of sorrowful waiting French soldiers once more tread the soil of your noble country. They are the pioneers in the great work of revenge. For them what day. emotion and what pride!

To achieve this work they have made the sacrifice of their lives. The French nation unanimously urges them on, and on the folds of their flags are inscribed the magic! words "Right and Liberty." Long live Alsace. Long live France.

THE GERMAN VERSION.

BERLIN, Aug. 8.

PARIS, Aug. 9.

The French Ministry of War has issued a At dawn the advance guard of a brigade by the enemy marching from the direction of their lights."

AUSTRIAN TROOPS IN ALSACE.

FRANCE AWAITING EXPLANATION.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

The Rome correspondent of the Echo de Paris states that reinforcements sent by Austria to help the Germans are beginning to arrive in Alsace. Forty-eight trains full of telegram, showing evident signs of having One of the cruiser squadrons of the main

Fleet was attacked yesterday by German

The news was redecived with joy throughout Paris. The Alsatians, it is said, were so delighted with the arrival of the Frenchmen that they tore

The footier poles

Chamber this afternoon. The news was redecived with joy throughout Paris. The across Bavaria and Wurtemburg. This news is confirmed by information received by the French Government, in consequence of which formity with . . ."

M. Doumergue has requested the Austromation paris.

The telegram here ends abruptly. It is was damaged and one of the enemy's sub- Mülhausen (French Mulhouse) is a large to explain without delay the intentions of his '

Alsace, particularly in the neighbourhood of Innsbruck. Count Szecsen de Térnérin has stated to M. Doumergue that he has received and has about 3,000 inhabitants. It has no Hungary hopes to provoke demonstrations here The impression in Paris is that Austriaand that thus Italy may be induced to abandon, her neutrality.

LARGE FORCES NEAR BASEL.

SWISS DETERMINATION TO GUARD THE FRONTIERS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BERNE, Aug. 8. About 40,000 Austrian troops composed of "Vive la France!" the Kaiser Jäger Regiment belonging to Inns-The Ministry of War expressly desires that near the Bâlois frontier, and a battle may occur without success.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 9.

day's march, crossing the river Styr.

WARNING.

To avoid misapprehension, it is essential that our readers should understand that there are now no means of independent communica-The Turkish military activity in Thrace, The news of the entry of the French Army tion by telegraph or letter between the German Dispatches received by the news agencies from neutral centres in Denmark and Holland at the Foreign Office.

A BISHOP AS VOLUNTEER. The Bishop of St. Asaph has volunteered for active

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK.

BRITISH SQUADRON ATTACKED.

NO DAMAGE TO OUR SHIPS.

1911-12, and are therefore of comparatively to the nation. recent design. They were built at Danzig! dockyard, but very few particulars of them are available.

THE AUSTRIAN FLEET.

VOYAGE OF THE GOEBEN.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

According to a telegram from Rome to the Miss Schintz; £1,100 per Andrew Motion; 1,000 guineas and Breslau were sighted in the Aegean yester-

It is also stated that the Austro-Hungarian Fleet of 13 battleships and cruisers, with

THE AUSTRIAN FLEET.

The Board of Trade has received from the Foreign Office the following message:-"His Majesty's Vice-Consul at Venice reports and Co., the Earl Cadogan, K.G., Chappell and Co. will receive official recognition and the status that the Izgled, an Austrian merchant ship, there, the Earl Fitzwilliam, the Lord Allendale, the be established. arrived from the south at 9 a.m. yesterday Right Hon. Sir Edgar Speyer, Ralli Brothers, A. B. It is announced here that the German Frontier of Austrian ships is lying off Pola and that in South as a strong fleet the Right Hon. Arnold Morley, and D. A. Thomas: LORD JOICEY'S ABSENCE IN GERMANY. Guard Troops in Upper Alsace were attacked the Adriatic the lighthouses have extinguished (Limited), the Lord Curzon of Kedleston, Maple and Co. (Limited), and Maypole Dairy Company (Limited):

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 10. have passed Greece, apparently directing their course to the Dardanelles.—Reuter.

ULTIMATUM ISSUED.

MUTILATED WESSAGE RECEIVED IN LONDON.

Reuter's Agency states that the following) passed through the Censor's hands, was re- LORD KITCHENER'S CALL FOR GLOBE THEATRE.

presumed, however, that it was meant to continue:-- 'the treaty between Great Britain |

TOKYO, Aug. 9. The First and Second Japanese Squadrons

Admiral Deva .- Reuter. AUSTRO-GERMAN

POPULARITY OF THE FRENCH CAUSE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BERNE, Aug. 8. I have just returned from Italy. The whole of Lombardy is enthusiastic in support of

I have good authority for saying that Ger- will not recruit additional men until the 100,000 men bruck and Tyrol are near Basel, on the Swiss many has recently made several appeals to the frontier. German and French troops are also Italian Government to come to her aid, but places in the Territorial unit should be filled as soon AT SEVENTEEN." New Romands Costuma Play. Popular

Had the Italian Government yielded to the Switzerland is apparently satisfied that German appeal there would, I am assured troops.

MONTENEGRO AND AUSTRIA.

STATE OF WAR DECLARED.

The Minister bas left Cettigne.—Reuter.

REPORTED BOMBARDMENT OF ANTIVARI.

yesterday .-- Reuter,

THE KING AND SIR EDWARD. GOSCHEN.

LORD KITCHENER'S ACTIVITY.

among his visitors being Colonel Seely.

THE PRINCE'S FUND. SOUTH TOGOLAND SEIZED

£400,000 IN TWO DAYS,

A GIFT OF HORSES.

The Prince of Wales's Fund had reached over £400,000 when the auditors closed the list on Saturday afternoon.

The King and Queen paid a surprise visit to The Secretary of the Admiralty issued York House on Saturday afternoon and dis-field or their neighbour's field, before the fields of The submarines U.I3 to U.18 were built in so that his three horses are practically a gift to the nation

Appended is Saturday's subscription list:--The Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain (more later if needed) The Duke of Westminster, K.G...

The Lord Howard de Walden The Lady Strathcona 5,000 Lord Hambleden ... Eastern Telegraph Company The Goldsmiths Company The Lord Glenconner Sir William Lever...

Cadbury Brothers (Limited) The Drapers' Company (first donation)... Sir W. G. Armstrong, Whitworth, and Co. Vickers (Limited) ... Two thousand guiness from the Marquess of Bute: £2,000 each from Boulton Brothers and Co., P. Trueman Mills, H. and R. Morton and Co. (Limited), and New York Herald the German cruisers Goeben Waterlow and Sons (Limited). The Union Castle Latham, Lord Leith of Pyvie, Messrs. L. and R. Morley. scene of great activity. Asher Wertheimer, London and River Plate Bank (1st contribution), Vernon J. Watney, Sir Philip . Sassoon, M.P., the Lord Beauclerk, Mosenthal, Sons, is, of course, purely private and voluntary, (Limited), Glyn. Mills, Currie, and Co., C. G. Monte- of Scouts when engaged in public business will

Co. (Limited).and Maypole Dairy Company (Limited): £500 cach from Bancroft Coward, Francis Reckitt, has been received of him for over a week. Lord H. Levan, Major R. H. Cholmondeley, The German warships Goeben and Breslau, Captain Quintin Dick, Lady Durning Lawrence, according to intelligence that has reached here, J. E. Withers, James Hutchinson, Alliance Assurance Company, the Earl of Home, F. J. Varrow. Mrs. George Coats, Waldorf Astor, M.P. (and £100) monthly), W. M. Cazalet, John Aird and Co., Airds (Limited), Sir John Aird, the Cutlers' Company, Kilburn, Brown, and Co., and Pandeli Ralli: £300 A from Max Hahn. £262 10s. from Merry weather and Sons: £250 each from Sir Joseph Lyons, Fremlin JAMES WELCH Brothers, and Garrard and Co. (Limited); and £100 WHF from "Toby, M.P." It has been decided to devote the proceeds of the

> In the list of subscribers to the Prince of Wales's A Fund Sir J. Roper Parkington's name was incorrectly given as "Partington."

given in the past.

100,000 MEN.

TO TERRITORIAL

War Office, London, S.W., 7th August, 1914. Sir,-In the present grave emergency the War have put out to sea under the command of Office looks with the utmost confidence to you for a continuance of the invaluable help which you have

I therefore desire to invite your cooperation in the work of raising the additional number of Regular! THREATS TO TALY troops required at once for the Army.

It is intended to enlist as soon as r It is intended to enlist as soon as possible 100,000! KINGSWAY THEATRE, non- and I would ask you to use your great local K LILLAH MCCARTHY. men, and I would ask you to use your great local influence and that of the Territorial Associations to secure these necessary recruits as soon as possible. The men will be accommodated in camps established at or near the existing regular depôts to which intending recruits may be sent, the camp nearest the 5 7 0 t h place from which they are drawn being selected. No responsibility for clothing or equipping the men will devolve upon County Associations; this will be arranged by the military authorities. Members of the Territorial Force may be enlisted. France. Everywhere are to be Leard cries of provided they fulfil the prescribed conditions as to age and physical fitness.

Territorial Force units that are at full strength as possible by men desirous of joining the Territorial prices, 6d. to 5s. Force only, and not the Regular Army Territorial units available for foreign service will naturally not be affected by this recruiting of Regular Such is the general outline of the scheme, in the furtherance of which you are desired to cooperate as far as possible. It is not an ordinary appeal from the Army for recruits, but the formation of a second Army, and it is hoped that you will be able to assist in getting the men in every way in your power.—I am, Sir,

FUTURE THE PARLIAMENT BILLS.

Your obedient servant,

PARTIES AND THE IRISH TRUCE.

To-day's sitting of the House of Commons Coldiers of the King, will be awaited with the deepest anxiety, for S the Irish crisis will rear its head once more in RESLIE STUART. ROME, Aug. 9. the Chamber from which it was banished at A telegram from Bari, near Brindisi, states the first threat of war. Patriotic men would to DEORGE the first threat of war. Patriotic men would in new ideas. that the steamer Brindisi, from Antivari, regret at this moment nothing so much as the Summing up the general situation, experts has brought news of the bombardment of revival of party contention at Westminster; I ATEST WAR NEWS ON THE SCREEN evacuated Mülhausen, the Germans retired on here say that so far everything is proceeding Antivari. The bombardment began at 8.30 yet the Chief Government Whip actually expects LAT "a division of great importance" to-day. He has warned Liberal members of this regrettable Colliseum.—Box-office, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. 'Phone 7,541 Gent.

Prices as usual.—Managing Director, OSWALD STOLL. possibility in the following "whip":-The Prime Minister will make a statement about the Parliament Act Bills on the adjournment motion en Monday. A division of great importance is expected. Your presence not later than 3 p.m. is most urgently will meet on August 25 only in order to consider Sir Edward Goschen, who has just arrived in England from the British Embassy in Berlin, went to Buckingham Palace on Saturday and was received in audience by the King. Sir Edward and the whole staff of the Embassy ated

Sir Edward Goschen, who has just arrived Departmental measures that may be necessary, and that the Session will then be finally promoted automatically carry with it the presentation of the Home Rule and Welsh Church Bills for the Royal Assent. This course would be at variance with the spirit of the Embassy ated Links from Policy Which has been declared by the Kings Which has been declared by the Kings Which has been declared by the Kingsway.

I ONDON OPERA HOUSE, Kingsway.

Linksway.

Linksway.

Linksway.

Linksway.

Linksway.

London Goldin, &c. Prices Cu. to 2s. 6d. Prec booking. Tele.

Welsh Church Bills for the Royal Assent. This course would be at variance with the spirit of the truce which has been declared by the American Scason commences. One performance nightly. which accompanied him from Berlin also called the truce which has been declared between the aftermoon papers were shouted down the julevards.

Julevards.

M. Alfred Capus in the Figure writes:

What a memorable moment! Those of us who are kept by their age or their duty far from the fighting line felt a thrill to the heart which they will never lorget on learning the news. For 40 years our whole

The Foreign Office.

Lord Kitchener, who was at the War Office were arrived at the foreign Office.

Lord Kitchener, who was at the War Office unless a settlement, temporary or permanent, were arrived at. The fortnight's adjournment to produce in England an impression favourable down the beginning of the European crisis since the beginning of the European crisis unless a settlement, temporary or permanent, were arrived at. The fortnight's adjournment to produce in England an impression favourable down the beginning of the European crisis since the beginning of the Eur who was also at work before 10 o'clock. Lord view of that respite, the voice of controversy Kitchener afterwards returned to the War will not, after all, be roused in the House of District Messengers for any purpose. Office and spent the rest of the day there, Commons to-day. The united front is more imperative than ever.

INVASION BY BRITISH FORCES.

FIRST GERMAN COLONIAL LOSS.

Acting on instructions from the Secretary of State for the Colonies the British Forces in the Gold Coast Colony on Friday seized the Port of Lome in German Togoland, on the West Coast Africa. No resistance was offered, and South Togoland up to 120 kilometres north A picturesque account is given in the Figure the following statement early this morn-played great interest, in the activities of the from the coast was simultaneously surrendered.

| In while trace the following statement early this morn-played great interest, in the activities of the large staff of workers who were there dealing. Togoland, which is situated on the Gulf of large staff of workers who were there dealing. Togoland, which is situated on the Gulf of with the subscriptions and the enormous amount Guinea, forms part of the territory formerly One of the Cruiser Squadrons of the Main of correspondence entailed by the work of the distinguished as the Slave Coast. It was The old chaps are splendid, dressed much as they Fleet was attacked yesterday by German sub- Fund. Their Majesties remained for 45 minutes. annexed by Germany in 1884. It has an area Yesterday the Prince of Wales and Princess of 33,659 square miles and a coloured population of about 1,000,000. Last year the European Among other incidents reported is that of a residents numbered 368, of whom 320 were subscriber to the Fund who sold three horses Germans. Togoland was ruled by an Imperial to the Government for £181. He promptly Governor, Duke Adolphus Frederick of Mecklenburg assisted by a council of seven unofficial members. Lome is the capital of the colony.

FRENCH COOPERATION.

The French Embassy has received information from Paris that a British force has seized the port of Lome, in Togoland, and that French troops have entered the colony by way of

SCOUTS' SERVICES.

STATE RECOGNITION PROBABLE.

Few people are aware of the valuable services Mail Steamship Company, The Peninsular and which the Boy Scouts have been rendering Oriental Steam Navigation Company. The British during the last few days in patrolling roads, India Steam Navigation Company, Mr. and Mrs. guarding cable and telegraph lines and reservoirs Corporation (Limited), and W. W. Tatem; £1,000 and in similar work. The Sea Scouts also are torpedo boats, were seen on the same day steaming down the Adriatic.

| Size of 13 battleships and cruisers, with 16 | each from Francis F. Grafton, Sir Edward Green, doing good work, assisting the coastguards in the Rajah of Pudukota, Abram Lyle and Sons patrolling the coast. Practically the whole (Limited), Kennedy Jones, Coutts and Co., H. Scout force is now being turned to useful account, Mallaby-Decley, M.P., Barclay and Co. (Limited), J.P., and the headquarters in Victoria-street are a

It is probable that the organization, which

Lord Joicey is in Germany, and no news

OLLO.

Tom B. Davis, Solv Lessee and Manager.

NIGHTLY, 8.45. Matince Every Wed. and Sat., 2.15.

THEATRES.

WHEN KNIGHTS WERE BOLD.
At 8.15, "HEAD FIRST," by Arthur Eckersley. Royal National Eisteddfod of Wales, to be held at Bangor next month, to the Prince of Wales's Fund, or any other similar patriotic fund.

CRITERION.

Tele., Gor. 3844. Regent 3865.

CRITERION.

Tele., Gor. 3844. Regent 3865.

CRITERION.

Tolonicht and EVERY EVENING, at 9.

Alsan Aynesworth and bronson Alberty present the successful Comedy A PAIR OF SILK STOCKINGS.

Mr. ALLAN AYNESWORTH.

Mr. SAM SOTHERN. Miss ENID PULL.

Miss ELLEN O'MALLEY. Miss M. HAMLEY-CLIFFORD

At 8.50. "A valuable Rival," by Neil F. Grant.

MATINEES WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, at 2.30. EVERY EVENING at A.
OSCAR ASCHE and LILY BRAYTON in HISMET.

By Edward Knoblanch.

MATINEES WEDNESDAYS and SATURDAYS... at 2.15.

Box-office 10 to 10.

Telephone Gerrard 8722. LIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE. "DRAKE." Feeling that the moment is one in which the theatre may illtingly be a factor in the National ille, we propose to put upon the stage of EIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE the play of "DRAKE," which created so deep an impression on the public mind two years ago. The date fixed for its FIRST PERFORMANCE is MONDAY NEXT. 17th August, at 8. The Box-office is now open daily 10 to 7 In order that all classes of the community may bave an opportunity of witnessing this patriotic play, whose spirit so truly reflects that which animates the Nation to-day, it has been decided to give these performances at Popular Prices Any profits arising will be devoted to the caust of those who suffer by the war. This resolve has been taken after consultation with the author. Mr. Louis N. Parker, who, on his part, will also lorgo any monetary profit.

HERBERT BEERBOHM TREE.

(Tele, 4.032 Ger.) GRANVILLE BARKER At 8.20. MAT. WEDS., SATS., at 2.30. GREAT ADVENTURE. The play produced by Granville Barker.
PERFORMANCE.

TYCEUM.—THE BELLE OF NEW YORK, NIGHTLY at L. MATINEIS WEDS, and SAIS, at 2.30. Popular prices, 5s. to 6d. Seats booked from 2s. 6d. Box-office, 10-11, Phono 7617-8 Ger. NEW THEATRE, St. Martin a-lane.
RE-OPENS SATURDAY EVENING, Aug. 23, at 8.20.
in GRUMPY.

SHAFTESBURY.

NIGHTLY, at 8.15.

Nr. ROBERT COURTNEIDGE'S PRODUCTION.

A Musical Farcies Comedy. Music by JEAN GILBERT.

THE CINEMA STAR.

MATINEE EVERY WEDNESDAY, at 2. Tole, 6663 Gert's

STRAND THEATRE. TO-NIGHT, Louis Meyer presents a new Anglo-Chinese play, VARIETIES, &c.

MATS. WEDS., 2.45. At 2.15 and 8.39. The Entertainers.

TO-NIGHT, AL A.

LHAMBRA. "The Revue. NOT LIKELY,
By George Grossmith and Cosmo Gordon Lennox.
LEE WHITE. ROBERT HALE.
LATEST WAR NEWS. VARIETIES, 8.15. REVUE, 8.50. 2.39 and 8 DAILY. Change of Programme Weekly Return to the stage of ECILLA LOFTUS. ALFRED LESTER (FROM OUR PARLIAMENTARY CORRESPONDENT.) G. P. HUNTLEY LAST WEEK

OF FORTY STRONG.

CONDUCTED BY THE COMPOSER,

DURING THE PERFORMANCE L'MPIRR.—"STICK TO YOUR GUNS." MAY MOORE DUPREZ, Phil and Phlora, Joe and Willy, Elsie Southgate, the Five Petleys, VOLANT and his Flying Piano, Char, Hart, K. Chiford, Cross and Josephine, Fisher and Green. "THE EDGE OF THE WORLD." LATEST WAR NEWS. Evgs., at 8.

It is stated in Ministerial circles that the Prime Minister will announce that the House will meet on August 25 only in order to consider

OFFICES in all parts of London, at the principal London Rall-way Termini, and at "THE TIMES BOOK CLUB." Telephone Gerrard 1023. Telegrams Opponents, London-7

"South Togoland Seized." Times, 10 Aug. 1914, p. 6. The Times Digital Archive, link.gale.com/apps/doc/CS101384970/TTDA?u=balt85423&sid=bookmark-TTDA. Accessed 19 Apr. 2023.